2009
Ex Jet Alliance Euro GT4 car. Went on to do Dubai 24hr twice and was purchased by ourselves and the car underwent a comprehensive strip down and rebuild before competing in the Aston Martin Le Mans Festival race where it lead its class for the majority of the race, but ended up finishing 2 nd due to a fuel pump failure. The fuel pumps have since all been replaced.
Car is fully serviced and rebuild by ourselves and our suppliers. Engine has over 6000km remaining of its 10,000km rebuild cycle. Diff has just been rebuilt and has covered 200Km since.
No spares included in the sale price, but we have many that can be sold separately.
